Description:

Fiji - Vanua Island – freehold – flat level 8 Hectares rural block - $350,000 - 90% Contracoin

Located on Vanua island – freehold – flat level 8 Hectares rural zone block (175m x 250m). Close to the new Chinese Bauxite mine. Can be used as an eco village or accommodation for miners.

Vanua Levu , formerly known as Sandalwood Island, is the second largest island of Fiji. Located 64 kilometres to the north of the larger Viti Levu, the island has an area of 5,587.1 square kilometres and a population of 135,961

If you're looking for secluded luxury on one of Fiji's lesser-known islands then you've found the place. Vanua Levu is home to some of Fiji's most luxurious spas, dazzling helicopter flights and top scuba diving sites such as Rainbow Reef, Namena Marine Reserve and the White Wall. Combine these experiences with a private flight onto the island and - staying in one of the all-inclusive resorts, and you're in for an extra special vacation.

Guaranteed secure freehold title under the Torren's system (the same land registration & transfer system used in Australia and New Zealand).

This 8 Ha rural zone block is priced at $350,000.00 with the seller accepting $35,000.00 Cash + $315,000.00 Contracoin.
